YTD Totals:	Annual Budget:	Unexpended Budget:
$58,701	$210,590	$151,889

*$245,123 (*Includes Dodge Co. match)

Program Changes/Notes:

1. New Treatment Court Program Director: Alisha Nelson
2. Four participants have completed the Thinking for a Change class which ended the week of May 10th.
3. 2020 Summary: IDC: 22 new admissions, 19 graduations, 3 terminations
DTC: 13 new admissions, 6 graduations, 3 terminations, 1 deceased
4. BJA update: At this time the BJA budget remains unused for this reporting period. Our current TAD grant funds 15 DTC clients and we currently have 8. We have not hired an additional case manager due to this, since we have not admitted the potential 15 additional participants, bringing the DTC capacity to 30 high risk/high need participants.
5. The 2021 DHS TAP Program is underway. The case managers continue to screen booked offenders in the jail and make appropriate referrals to community resources. Additionally, there are 2 current TAP clients being monitored for their DPA as well as 4 pending referrals for the program.
6. One person received Vivitrol in the jail in the month of April, which is covered by the DHS MAT grant.
7. The vacant DTC/TAP case manager position was filled on January 19, 2021 by Angela Bonack. She participated in Motivational Interviewing Training Febraury 18 and 19 and Thinking For a Change training at the end of April.
8. WATCP Conference was held on April 28th, 29th, and 30th. Two of the Treatment Court Case managers attended in person and a large majority of the remaining team members attended virtually including Judge Sciasca and Judge Snow.
