Program Changes/Notes:

1. Treatment Court Team Updates: Dodge County Treatment Courts welcomed District Attorney Andrea Will to serve on both IDC and DTC teams. DTC Probation Agent Tracey Blaedow was replaced by Agent's Chalyn Mueller (DTC) and Benjamin Mitchell (IDC). Captain Jason Boeck now serves on the IDC team and DTC welcomed Lieutenant Taylor Nehls as Sherriff Dept. representative.
2. Representatives from the DOJ and Office of State Courts conducted a site visit on 02/23/2023. The representatives observed staffing and court for both DTC and IDC and provided valuable feedback in a detailed report.
3. On 5/3/2023, both DTC and IDC team members will meet for a round table discussion to address program policies and procedures. Feedback from the site visit report will also be addressed to ensure both programs meet state treatment court standards.
4. 8 team members attended Wisconsin State Standards Training presented by the Wisconsin Association of Treatment Court Professionals (WATCP). 7 team members attended the week long WATCP State Conference in person or virtually. The Treatment Court Case Managers also completed training in Ethics and Boundaries, Motivational Interviewing, "Race Matters", and Equity and Inclusion.
5. A meeting was held with Jail and DCHS staff to discuss the Jail Vivitrol Program. New policies and procedures will be developed with the goal that injection numbers increase. Vivitrol injections are covered by the DHS MAT grant.
