Escaped Huber inmate: James Griswold

The Dodge County Sheriff's Office is seeking help from the public to locate Dodge County inmate James Cody Griswold, birthdate 04-12-1992. He is an inmate with court-ordered Huber privileges, which allows certain inmates to leave the facility for work and medical appointments.

James Griswold left the Dodge County jail around midnight, to seek non-emergent medical attention at Marshfield Medical Center in Beaver Dam. However, he never arrived at that facility, nor other area hospitals. He left the jail in his own vehicle, a black, 2013, Chevy Malibu, with Wisconsin registration "AWV 9228". He also owns a black, 2001 Dodge Ram, "UX 6397". James Griswold is local, and may be in the Juneau and Beaver Dam areas.

If anyone has information about where he may be, or has recently been, please contact the Dodge County Sheriff's Office non-emergency number 920-386-3726. You may also contact us through our app and website. Deputies are actively trying to locate him, and appreciate any information the public can provide that may assist us. There is an active felony warrant for his arrest stemming from this incident.

Questions may be directed to Sheriff Dale J. Schmidt
