- Talked about the Frac sand legislation bill being proposed
 - Took questions

Todd Berry – Presented material on Tax Levy Caps

1. State & Local Finances

- Long-term slowdown in Economy
- Shift in State priorities

2. History of Proposed Tax

- Steady growth from 1983 to today
- Biggest change in recent past

3. Property tax anxiety & response

- Action when pressure on peoples incomes

4. Change in shift in priorities of use of taxes

- Shared revenue down
- In the 1990's levy amounts were going up

5. Revenues reduced in mid 2000's

6. Charity spending going down

7. County debt service is rising

8. Levy limits were causing counties to levy to max

- "Tax to the Max"

Examples of local budget changes as a result of Tax Levy Cap

Columbia County

- Cutting since 2003 – costs for new Huber center have increased
- All departments have delayed re-hiring open positions
- Technology improvements delayed
- Cannot hire new jailers
 - Structural deficit in 2013 budget

Green Lake County

- Highway skipping years in vehicle purchases
- Reducing road construction from 13 to 2 miles annually
- HHS – reduction in funding of Aging Programs
- Sheriff – reallocating resources to manage shortfalls
- A Positive aspect of the levy cap is it forces everyone to take a more critical review of budget

Marquette County

- Not seen changes in services
- Infrastructure improvements declining – will be an issue
- Keeping squads longer

Jefferson County

- Reduction of resurfacing roads
- Expand the use of the squad cars by one year
- Do not refill staff positions or expand refill time
- Expand timeline of capital purchases

Sauk County

- No affect to date – concerned about long-term sustainability
- May effect long term recruits and ability to retain good staff

Dodge County

- No effect

Many counties dipping into reserves

Next Meeting

Next meeting: November 18, 2013 in Sauk County – Topic: Technical Colleges, Vision, and Response to Needs

Adjournment

Meeting adjourned by the Chair at 11:26 A.M.

Respectfully Submitted,

From: Steve Grabow, Jefferson County CRD, ICC Treasurer
To: Jeff Hoffman, Dodge County CRD, recorder for October ICC meeting

At the October 21, 2013 ICC Meeting, I gave a verbal Treasurer's Report to the Committee. I indicated that our County Clerk reported a balance of about $257 as of October 2, 2013. Included below is the email from Jefferson County Clerk Barb Frank showing the balance of $256.96 as of October 2nd. We also discussed that the payment request letters typically are sent when the balance is getting low. We are now at that point. Per the discussion with the ICC, I will have Linda send out requests for payment to all ICC counties before year end with the exception of Green Lake County which submitted a check for $100 already. The due date for payment will be February 1, 2014. The payment request for each county is $100. This was also reported to and discussed by the Committee. You may attach this memo with your minutes to have an official record.

Subject: RE: ICC fund balance

$256.96

c/f $401; spent $144.

Remember I still have the check from Green Lake County and do not know what to do with it or if we need to bill the other counties??

Thanks Barb
